

WELCOME TO NOWATA

A SAFER AND GREAT PLACE TO LIVE AND WORK

BELOW IS A LIST OF NOWATA CITY ORDINANCES.

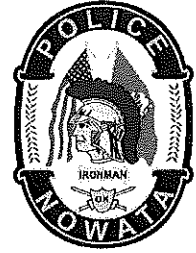

This list is just a reminder to make life easier for all.

1. Ordinance 4-102, animals running at large. This ordinance is strictly enforced and carries a fine of up to $154.00 plus pound fees.
2. Ordinance 4-201, yearly vaccinations required. This ordinance is strictly enforced and carries a fine of up to $104.00.
3. Ordinance 4-202, yearly registration fee for dogs. This ordinance is strictly enforced and carries a fine of up to $104.00.
4. Ordinance 4-203, it is unlawful to own or harbor a vicious animal. This ordinance is strictly enforced and carries a fine of up to $274.00 plus possible civil and or criminal liabilities.
5. Ordinance 4-113, Keeping of dogs restricted. It is unlawful for any person, firm or corporation that owns leases or controls any premises within the city to maintain on such premises more than a total of three (3) dogs. This ordinance is strictly enforced and carries a fine of up to $500.00.
6. Ordinance 4-501, keeping of wild, exotic or dangerous animals. This ordinance is strictly enforced and carries a possible fine of up to $500.00. This list includes but is not limited to lions, tigers, leopards, panthers, bears wolves, alligators, crocodiles, apes, monkeys, foxes, raccoons, skunks, and all forms of poisonous or large snakes, including those considered dangerous such as boas and pythons.

WHERE THE OK LIFE Begins

WELCOME TO NOWATA

7. Ordinance 4-801, Hens (chickens). A yearly city license shall be purchased. The number of hens allowed shall be a maximum of six (6) hens per property. Roosters are prohibited within the City of Nowata. This ordinance is strictly enforced and carries a fine of up to $500.00.

If you have any questions about these or any other ordinances, please feel free to contact Nowata City Hall at (918) 273-3538 or visit www.NowataOk.gov for more contact information. Thank you for choosing Nowata as your home or place to work.

---

Mike McElhaney, Chief of Police